My incredibly talented friend, Jake Wilson, has composed a series of Folk-Rock songs based on the diary entries of Robert Scott on his ill-fated expedition to the Pole.

I thought it worth pointing out that the website for this is now up. Opportunities to purchase the album to be added in the near future, but for now you can listen to all the songs. I particularly recommend the title track "All's Well".

The songs come with the blessings of Dave Swarbrick, Fairport Convention legend, who calls Jake one of the best guitar players he knows. This guy knows Richard Thompson, so that's saying something!
